RED LIGHTS GO OUT ON DECEMBER FIRST

Judge Reed Orders Disorderly Houses on Kentucky Avenue to Abate Nuisance.

COURT WILL END PADUCAH'S SHAME

"Red Lights" will be extinguished on Kentucky avenue December 1.

Circuit Judge William Reed informed all proprietors of "bawdy houses" this morning that they will have to vacate Kentucky avenue by December 1, or suffer the consequences.

"Of course some of you own property," he stated, "and we can not drive you away from your own property, but we can prevent you operating such houses as now exist and we intend to put a stop to it."

Judge Reed explained explicitly that the "red light" district has long been regarded by him as a nuisance in its present location, but declined to be interviewed.

"I have been receiving complaint after complaint," he stated, "about this nuisance. The city wants to have parks and a nice boulevard and unless this district is broken up it will be impossible in this locality. I will fine the keepers of these houses the usual fine but they must vacate by December 1. This is my decision."

Judge Reed was brief. He means business and the women who were in person arraigned before him this morning felt it.

Kentucky avenue has been the resort of houses of this character ever since the city extended to Tenth street. The women probably will seek a new location.

Judge Reed in fining the women did not fine them for bawdy houses but for "nuisance." This gives him a recourse in event they do not move, the fine for nuisance being greater than for conducting bawdy houses.

Havana, Sept. 19.—Government forces 2,000 strong, under command of Col. Belancourt, are concentrating at Matanzas, and it is reported that they expect orders to march toward Havana.

WORK PROGRESSING

On New Railroad Line Projected at Hickman.

Hickman, Ky., Sept. 19.—Surveyors for the Sikeston & Southeastern railroad will arrive here this week to stake off the ground in this city for the location of the depot, sidings and yards, as the right-of-way for the main line has been secured. The laying of railroad iron is expected to begin as soon as the engineers make their surveys for the local yards. C. C. Mengel, of Louisville, who is also proprietor of the Mengel Box company, of this place, has offered to deed the grounds for the depot as soon as the survey is made, which will, it is understood, be accepted by the railroad. All the subscriptions solicited have been secured.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL HIGH IN AIR

"Steeple Jack" Cuts Ropes Supporting Men 250 Feet Up.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 19.—"Steeple Jack" Graham, while under the influence of liquor, ascended a standpipe 250 feet high today, and told the painters at work at the top that he would cut the ropes supporting the scaffold. Realizing their danger, the painters lowered themselves to a small window, and hardly had cleared the scaffold when it fell to the ground, all of the ropes having been cut.

LEAVES FOR AUGUSTA.

Georgia Banker Going Back Home as Fugitive.

Pittsburg, Sept. 19.—Thomas W. Alexander, the cotton broker of Augusta, Ga., under arrest here as a fugitive from justice, will leave for home tonight in charge of Lieutenant of Police Collins, of Augusta, who arrived in Pittsburg today. Lieut. Collins says the amount involved is between $150,000 and $200,000.

TREE LIMBS STRIKE BANNERS.

Laborers in Joliet Quarries Hold Picturesque Parade.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 19.—With the limbs of trees as banners, striking laborers in the quarry of the Western Stone company marched from quarry to quarry today to get their fellow workmen to lay down their tools. The men have been getting $1.75 per day, and demand an advance of 25 cents. Nearly every quarry is idle.

DENTAL CONVENTION.

Tenth Annual Session Opens at Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 19.—Representatives from nearly every state in the union were present at the opening session of the tenth annual convention of the National Dental association, which began here today.

NO FREE TUITION.

Extended to Tobacco Users and Theater Patrons.

Syracuse N. Y., Sept. 19.—Tobacco users and theater-goers among the college students of Syracuse University must pay full tuition according to an edict issued by the chancellor, James R. Day, today, when college opened for the fall term. "Young men who can afford to pay for needless luxuries and indulgences can afford to pay for their tuition, and will receive no concessions from the faculty," said the chancellor.

TOO HIGH

WAS THE TRAIN AND PRISONER DID NOT JUMP.

Marshal Brown's Man Was Hiding in Ladies' Toilet Room With the Window Up.

Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal, came near losing a prisoner he was taking to Norfolk, Va., last week to turn over to the naval authorities to be tried for deserting from the navy.

Frank Crane is the name of the prisoner and he is a Paducah boy. Marshal Brown, while crossing the Allegheny mountains took off the handcuffs.

"Before I knew it," said the marshal, "he had gotten out of my sight. I informed the conductor. He went through the train and found Crane crouched in the ladies' toilet room. He had the window up ready to jump out, but we were too high above ground."

FROM BALLOON

TERRORISTS WERE PLANNING TO DROP BOMB.

Will Slaughter Officers En Masse, According to Latest Manifesto—The Funeral.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—A plot of Terrorists to drop bombs on the Imperial palace at Peterhoff, from a balloon was discovered and this it is said, accounts for the czar's sudden change of plans and cruise on the royal yacht in the Baltic sea.

Funeral of Trepoff.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—Under a strong military guard the funeral of General Trepoff, Russia's "Iron-Fisted" ruler, was held at the church at Peterhoff this morning. Owing to the fear Terrorists might commit some outrage in connection with the funeral the greatest precautions were taken. Every available Cossack was used to guard the church and approaches.

Killing Officers.

Warsaw, Sept. 19.—Terrorists issued a proclamation today giving notice that they have determined upon the murder of officers "en masse" in fulfillment of a threat. Five Terrorists shot and killed Colonel Nicolaieff, an artillery officer, while he was walking on the streets. The murderers escaped.

STRIKERS SACK STATION.

French Rioters Burn Its Furniture and Papers—Furniture Looted.

Grenoble, France, Sept. 19.—Violent strike riots occurred here today. A mob tore down the doors of a big factory, carried off the furniture of the establishment, piled it in the street and set it on fire. Then the mob proceeded to the police station, believing that two of their comrades were in prison there, and sacked it, making a bonfire of the furniture and papers. The troops were able to disperse the mob only by the free use of their rifle butts. Re-enforcements of dragoons and cuirassiers have been asked.

Defend Coloring Matter.

New York, Sept. 19.—The use of coloring matter, flavors and preservatives in foods and drugs was discussed before the government commission appointed to bear the arguments of manufacturers as to the application of the pure food law at a continued hearing in this city today. Many merchants and manufacturers were present. Dr. Huga Switzer, of H. Lieber & Co., defended the use of aniline or coal tar dyes in food.

DEMOCRATS WILL VOTE TOMORROW

Police Judge's Race is The Most Interesting.

Cross Has Organization Behind Him but Puryear Has Record to Make Race On.

FRIENDS SHOULD TURN OUT.

Tomorrow the Democrats hold their primary for city officers, and while there is not much interest being taken in the primary as a whole, there is a good deal of interest in the judgeship.

There are only two candidates for this office, the incumbent, Edward H. Puryear, and Attorney Dave Cross, and the race promises to be well fought. Mr. Cross has been making an active campaign, but Judge Puryear has not been able to do so, on account of his duties and is standing on his splendid record he has made in his short incumbency.

He has a host of well wishing friends, however, and they contend, if all of them will turn out tomorrow, he will be nominated. They point to his record in office and claim, with the evidence seemingly to attest the statement, that he has done more to cause "respect for the majesty of the law" than any city judge we have had in years.

Cross' friends, on the other hand, contend he has the race won. He has an organization of supporters who are workers and old hands at the political game, and the contests promise some interest. The Democratic ring opposed Judge Puryear's appointment by Mayor Yeiser.

It has been reported generally that some of the candidates propose to use carriages to get out the voters tomorrow, which is a violation of the law, which says:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to use any vehicle in the city of Paducah on any election day, in carrying any voter to or towards the polls of any election held for the purpose of filling any office created by or existing under the charter of the city of Paducah. Such use of vehicles is hereby prohibited whether run for hire or gratuitously. Any voter may ride to the polls in his own vehicle but shall not carry another. Persons may ride to the polls on street cars if they pay their own fare. If any person shall violate the provision of this section he shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $25."

The candidates are:

Police Judge—David A. Cross and Edward H. Puryear.

Aldermen—E. W. Baker, John W. Little, Edward H. Hannan, George Willow, C. F. Nieman and P. H. Stewart. Five to be chosen.

Councilmen First Ward—H. R. Lindsey and C. W. Morrison.

Second Ward—David M. Flournoy.

Third Ward—Al M. Foreman and James P. Segenfelder.

Fourth Ward—Young Taylor, Ernest Lackey and Alonzo Crandall.

Fifth Ward—George W. Shelton.

Sixth Ward—Charles W. Smith.

The candidates for school trustees are:

First Ward—J. Maxwell.

Second Ward—J. Ashley Robertson.

Third Ward—Robert A. Baker.

Fourth Ward—Harry L. Judd.

Fifth Ward—William T. Byrd and George J. Moore.

Sixth Ward—Dow Watson.

Chairman W. A. Berry, of the city Democratic committee, was out this morning securing locations for the voting stations for the Democratic primary tomorrow. Eighteen were secured as follows:

Butler's—1811 Meyer.

South Side Fire Station—At station.

Deigel's Paint shop.

Chalk's—1025 South Third.

Glauber's—At stable.

Warehouse—114 Broadway.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

Big Uprising Likely to Occur in Santo Domingo.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Capt. Southerland, commanding the naval forces in Santo Domingo waters, has cabled the department that the situation in the island has become very active and that a revolution of some proportions is possible. The government has assembled 400 men at Monticristi, which, together with the force already there, leaves other parts of the Dominican territory somewhat unprotected, and there is a possibility of a large uprising.

DELEGATES

WILL BE SENT FROM CAIRO AND METROPOLIS, ILL.

Secretary Coons Will Speak Before Commercial Club of Metropolis at Next Meeting.

Cairo and Metropolis, Ill., will participate in the Southwestern Kentucky Immigration movement and both will send delegates to the convention in this city October 4 and 5.

The Commercial club yesterday received a letter from the secretary of the Cairo Commercial club, announcing that delegates have been named by that organization, which adopted resolutions commending the movement. Secretary Coons has been invited to attend the next meeting of the Metropolis club and explain the subject.

Both these towns are located so close to west Kentucky that anything affecting the condition of this section affects them.

VOLCANO

RAGING UNDER LID, WHICH TAFT TRIES TO HOLD DOWN.

American Intervention Looked on as Certain in Cuba—Army Officers Ordered Home.

Havana, Sept. 19.—The lid upon which Taft sits covers a volcano. It is doubtful if he can hold it down. Well informed men say American troops surely will come. It may be a matter of a few weeks, possibly more, but inevitably. The almost universal opinion here is Taft's peace commission will fail. The government declares it never will consent to insurgent rule. The city is peaceful today.

Officers Ordered Home.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Orders were cabled Brigadier General Barety, assistant chief of staff, and Brigadier General Guvall, in command of the department of the gulf, both in Germany attending the maneuvers, to return to Washington forthwith. The purpose of the order is to have the officers at hand in case their services are required in Cuba.

TWO ARE KILLED.

B. & O. Passenger Sideswipes an Accommodation Train.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 19.—Passenger train No. 1 on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, from Cincinnati to St. Louis, side-swiped No. 7, an accommodation, at Huron, Ind., this afternoon. The engineer and fireman of No. 1 were killed in the cab and several passengers are reported injured. Wrecking trains carrying physicians went to the scene from Mitchell, Ind.

Four Are Rescued.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 19.—The Clyde liner New York today brought into port the mate and three seamen of the American schooner R. D. Bibber, Capt. Sayres, lumber laden, from Savannah to New York, wrecked off the Frying Pan shoals. The vessel turned turtle and went to pieces. The men were found clinging to the spars. The captain and others of the crew were not found.

WEATHER — Threatening with occasional rain tonight and probably Thursday. The high temperature reached yesterday was 91 and the lowest today was 74.

ENGINEER FOUND DEAD IN HIS BUNK

C. B. Beyer, of The Government Boat Lookout.

Failed to Report for Breakfast and Condition Was Discovered at Gilbertsville.

WELL KNOWN AROUND PADUCAH

C. B. Beyer, second engineer on the United States steamer Lookout, was found dead in his bunk this morning, while the boat was near Gilbertsville on the Tennessee river. Failing to come to breakfast, a man was sent after him and the discovery was made that he was dead.

Last night at 8:30 o'clock he went off his watch and was in fine spirits. He was never known to be depressed and the absence of any external marks or indications on his body precludes the idea of suicide, unless he took some drug.

The boat was turned around immediately and came to the city for a coroner's investigation. No one on the boat could assign any explanation of the death.

Beyer had lived in and around Paducah for the last ten or twelve months. His parents live in Oregon. He was never married and so far as is known, has no relatives in this section of the country. Last winter he worked on the government dredge in the Ohio river. He was usually late to his meals and it was only after an extraordinary absence that some one was sent for him, and found him dead.

It seems the irony of fate that Beyer should be found dead by his own brother, Jim Byers, was eating breakfast with the rest of the crew and was jokingly told to "root" his brother out. He found him dead.

J. R. Thompson slept all night across from the dead man and got up early this morning without noticing Byers. The Lookout is in command of Captain J. E. Hall. The coroner had not been secured at 1 o'clock and the dead man's brother desired to remove him from the hot boat where mortification of the body would soon set in.

The only explanation of his death aside from heart failure is an incident which happened a few days ago. He climbed a tree to catch a young squirrel and became poisoned with live oak. Last night he rubbed salve on this poisoned place on his arm, which had previously turned black. When found this morning he had one hand resting over his heart but there were no indications of a death struggle.

The inquest will be held at 4 o'clock.

GROUND GLASS

Proved a Bad Bluff on Which to Secure Cocaine for Prisoner.

In an effort to secure cocaine, Florence Greer, a colored prisoner serving a sentence of 30 days in the county jail, filled her mouth full of bits of glass from a broken bottle and groaned to attract the jailer's attention. Turnkey Bud Howle and County Physician L. E. Young responded. She refused to spit out the glass and Dr. Young choked her until her torn and bleeding tongue protruded and the glass was raked out.

CORPSES BY SCORES.

Picked Up on Beach Near Hong Kong, China.

Hong Kong, Sept. 19.—This city is dead today. It is said the loss of life from yesterday's typhoon is between five hundred and a thousand. The exact number never will be known, owing to the fact that many vessels are believed to have gone down outside the harbor. The property loss will reach millions. Today organized parties are scouring the beaches gathering up scores of bodies washed ashore.

Reviving Carter Case.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—The case of Oberlin M. Carter formerly a captain in the corps of engineers in the United States army, was reopened in the federal court today before Judge Kohlsaat. The issue in the present hearing is an attempt by the government to recover from Carter $1,000,000, which it is claimed he stole while in charge of the work at Savannah, Ga. Carter today expressed himself as confident that the case will result in his complete vindication.

It is the daily average circulation of a newspaper that the shrewd advertiser investigates. "High Water" days don't count. The Sun's daily average last month was 3040.

INDIAN'S RECORD FOR TIED SCORES

Unique Distinction Held By Paducah's Team.

Eleven Tie Games in League and Indians Figure in Nine During Season.

SCORES OF THE BIG LEAGUES

The Paducah Indians finished the fourth annual race in the Kitty league in about as perfect a shape as a mince-pie in August, flavored with nickle whisky, but they carried off one world's record; to-wit: the number of games that ended in ties. Some have ventured to say that this was because the opposing teams were only dilly-dallying with the Indians for personal amusement. This can not be the case, for no ball team ever finished a day's work with a tied count if it could squeeze in an extra run in any possible manner. Of the 135 games played by Paducah this year nine of them were ties. Of the pitchers, Bralich holds the record with four and a total of 55 innings. Wright and Tadlock follow with two each and King Wiley Platt ran one into a tie.

It is such doings as this that places the name in the history of baseball and the name "Paducah" before thousands upon thousands of ball cranks the world around.

Altogether there were eleven tied games in the Kitty for the year, Paducah figuring in all but two of them.

DISCRIMINATION

Against North Side Changed By Councilman.

Councilman John Williamson, Jr., said today:

"The north side is always the one to be placed in darkness when an armature is burned out at the city lighting plant, and when the council meets again I will go after the persons responsible for the matter. I called up the superintendent of the lighting plant and he told me he had his instructions from the board of public works. I think that the board of public works is working in conjunction with the traction company

Mr. Williamson said the board of public works gave as its excuse the fact that the traction company was doing improvement work, and that the lights are being burned on streets where the most danger from street improvements lurks.

FORREST'S MEN

WILL MEET IN MEMPHIS FOR GRAND REUNION.

General Tyler Sends Orders to All
Men Who Followed Great
Cavalry Leader.

The following order has been received by local Confederate veterans: Hickman, Ky., Aug. 24, 1906.

There will be held in Memphis, Tenn., October 17, 1906, a reunion of all veterans who at any time served under Gen. N. B. Forrest. The citizens of Memphis are enthusiastic, and have promised to throw wide their doors and entertain every old veteran in royal style. Committees will meet the veterans at the train on the evening of the 16th and the morning of the 17th, assign them to their homes and furnish them with orders for horses free to ride in the parade.

There will be a parade on horseback for all who can ride, and automobiles and carriages for all who are unable to ride horseback. It is proposed that we pass in review before the statue of our beloved old commander, to be followed by appropriate exercises around his tomb. We will then repair to a beautiful park, where all will be served with an old-time Tennessee barbecue, all veterans to form at the table in companies and regiments just as they disbanded. All regiments will join in the parade just as they disbanded under the command of their senior surviving officer present. All regiments from each state to constitute a brigade except Tennesseans, who will be divided into two brigades, West Tennessee and Middle and East Tennessee.

By an article of the association every soldier of any and all arms of service who at any time during the war served under Gen. N. B. Forrest, and remained true and faithful to the cause unto the end, is entitled to recognition and membership in the corps, and will be admitted to all reunions and exercises without any further enrollment.

Badges similar to those given out at New Orleans will be given all who attend that have not heretofore received them.

Let every veteran attend. We will never have such another opportunity to meet and pay loving tribute to him who led us through many a victorious battle.

By order of H. A. Tyler, Lieut. Gen. commanding.

TAKES CHILD TO JUVENILE COURT

Humane Officer Interferes in The Ethel Jones Case.

Mrs. Burton Believes Complaint
Against Her Is Actuated by Malice.

THE FATHER EXONERATES HER.

Humane Officer Tom Sanders will this afternoon bring Ethel Jones before Juvenile Judge R. T. Lightfoot for a conference, and it may result in the child's being placed in the Home of the Friendless or taken away from her present foster mother, Mrs. F. G. Burton, Fourth and Ohio streets.

"I was told by neighbors that Mrs. Burton was using too severe means of correcting the child," Mr. Sanders explained, "and I investigated. Mrs. Burton stated that the father gave the child into her keeping and she used the palm of her hand in administering corporal punishment. She explained this to Judge Puryear, of the police court, and he told me to summon the child before him. Later I learned that Juvenile Judge R. T. Lightfoot was the proper authority and will take the girl before him.

"The matter was referred to me by the board of directors of the Home of the Friendless, and they have referred it back to me. It is now up to me to act."

Officer Sanders said he does not desire to misrepresent Mrs. Burton or to do her any injustice, but a fair trial is all that his duties call for and he will have it.

The father of the little girl stated that Mrs. Burton did not abuse her and he wishes the child to remain in his custody. Mrs. Burton said that neighbors interfered in her affairs and she snubbed them. She believes the complaint against her is actuated by malice.

TAMMANY VICTORY OVER McCLELLAN

Feature of Democratic Contest in New York.

Odell Forces Routed By Parsons and Higgins, Whom Roosevelt Favors Most.

WINSTON CHURCHILL LOSES

New York, Sept. 19.—In a bitter clash of the opposing factions in today's primary elections in New York county, Congressman Herbert Parsons, president of the New York county committee, won a sweeping victory for the control of the Republican organization while leader Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall retained his position at the head of the Democratic organization by a narrow margin.

Parsons' victory was a complete rout for the Odell faction. Parsons had the backing of President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins.

In the Democratic battle the friends of Mayor McClellan had banded together to wrest the control of Tammany from Murphy and were very nearly successful in doing so.

Churchill Lost for Governor.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 19.—Charles M. Floyd, of Manchester, was nominated for governor last night over Winston Churchill at the close of the hardest contest ever waged in a Republican convention in New Hampshire. Nine ballots were necessary before the choice was made.

FINDS THINGS CLEAN.

English Representative Who Investigated Packing Houses.

London, Sept. 19.—William Hayden, representative of the Worshipful company of Butchers of the City of London, at the recent convention of the Master Butchers' association of the United States, which was held in Milwaukee, has returned to London, and in an interview gave the results of his observations on visits to various Chicago meat packing establishments.

Mr. Hayden says he made an exhaustive examination of the various operations, from killing to canning. The slaughtering is carried out in the most humane and scientific manner, although it might seem repulsive to a non-practical person. He found the employees clean in their persons and the work blocks and floors exceedingly clean and well kept.

Ruling on Rate Law.

Washington, Sept. 19.—The interstate commerce commission today rendered a most important decision in the matter of applications from various railroads giving administrative construction to certain provisions of the new railroad rate laws. Briefly they hold, that with regard to payments for transportation, nothing but money can be legally received. With regard to notices of changes in rates, the joint rate between two or more connecting carriers is held to be the legal rate and any change requires thirty days' notice. With regard to round-trip excursion rates, the commission makes three rulings, the most important being that these may be changed at one day's notice.

The gauge registered a fall of .9 in the last 24 hours, the stage this morning being 8.6. Rainfall .10 inches. Business at the wharf dull.

The Saltillo passed out of the Tennessee river last night bound for St. Louis. The Saltillo is now the only packet in the St. Louis-Tennessee river trade.

The Buttrick arrived last night from Clarksville and left today at noon for Nashville.

The Dunbar arrived and departed in the regular Evansville trips today.

The Clyde will clear for the Tennessee river this evening at 6 o'clock.

The Dick Fowler had a light trip to Cairo and way points this morning.

The dispatch from Pittsburg, describing the difficulty of getting the big new steamer S. S. Brown under a bridge, reminded local river men of the way a one-time Paducah captain got around the same kind of difficulty. When he got to the Cairo bridge with his boat, it lacked just a foot in getting under. He had holes bored in the hull and sank the boat enough to get under. It is said that he would have been paid off in the middle of the month if he had not had kinship relations with the owners of the steamer.

The only significant thing at the wharf this morning was the interesting operations of a diver working to raise a heavily loaded barge of sand which sank Sunday night at the sand docks. The barge sank right at the sand float, making it impossible to land so that the barge must be raised immediately. The diver was in regulation helmet and suit. The air pumps and life lines were in a small flat boat near his operations. Jim Mills is the professional diver and came here from Cairo yesterday. The sand digger is pumping the sand out of the barge in the same way it pumps it out of the river bed. The diver is closing the hatches and when this is done the water will be pumped out of the barge causing it to rise to the surface.

It is probable that the Henry Harley will go out in the place of the John Hopkins Saturday in the Evansville trade. The water is getting too low for the Hopkins. Painting and other brushing up will be done on the Hopkins while it is lying up. Both the Hopkins and the Joe Fowler were thoroughly repaired last year.

During the month of August, 1906, a total of 105 vessels of 35,221 tons gross were built in the United States. Of these one sailor of 1,466 tons gross and twelve steamers of 27,857 tons gross were built of steel. The share of the various districts was as follows: Atlantic and gulf, thirteen wooden sailers of 2,181 tons gross, one steel sailer of 1,566 tons gross, twenty-nine wooden steamers of 1-387 tons gross and eight steel steamers of 8,739 tons gross; Pacific coast, three wooden sailers of thirty-three tons and eleven wooden steamers of 1,396 tons; Great Lakes, fourteen wooden steamers of 162 tons and four steel steamers of 19,118; western rivers, twenty-two wooden steamers of 629 tons.

CIMARRON RIVER SWALLOWS WRECK

Fearful Tragedy on the Rock Island Railroad.

Bridge Swerved by Floods Gives Way
Under Pressure of Passenger Train.

SOME FLOATED TO SAFETY.

Lawton, Okla., Sept. 19.—Reports from the scene of the Rock Island wreck do not bear out the early estimates of the loss of life. Railway officials insist that only nine passengers were riding in the smoking car when it plunged into the river. Of this number all are accounted for but three.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 19.—Many people are dead, twenty seriously injured and as many more missing as a result of the wreck of a Rock Island passenger train, three miles from here.

The engine, tender, baggage and mail cars, smoker and day coach on train No. 10, north bound, left the high bridge that spans the Cimarron river and plunged into the river quicksand.

The locomotive disappeared from sight almost immediately. The mail and baggage clerks escaped and swam ashore. The accident was due to a defective flange on the bridge which was swerved out of line by the pressure of driftwood carried down by the swollen stream.

The train was an hour late and was running at a high speed to make up time. The engineer did not see the condition of the bridge until he was within a few yards, when it was too late to stop. He shouted to the fireman, threw on the air brakes and jumped. He landed on the river bank and escaped unhurt. The fireman was severely injured.

When the engine struck the bridge the whole structure suddenly collapsed, precipitating the engine, smoker and day coach into the river. The two Pullmans remained on the track.

The scene was one of indescribable confusion. The shrieks of those imprisoned in the partly submerged coaches were added to the shouts of those on the bank. The swift current whirled the day coach down stream and lodged it against a sand bank. The occupants were helped out through doors and windows.

Float Down Stream to Safety.

The smoker floated down stream, submerged all but the top. It stuck on a sandbar in the middle of the river. Four men who clambered through a window to the top of the car were swept away by a large mass of driftwood. Three other men jumped through the rear door of the smoker before the car sank, and swam to shore.

The most authentic accounts place the number of passengers in the smoker at between twenty-five and thirty. With few exceptions none have been accounted for.

The only hopeful news is contained in a message from rural districts. Men on bits of driftwood have been seen going down stream at various places, but attempts at rescue have in most instances proved futile.

One man whose name is unknown was fished out of the Cimarron at Cashion, twenty miles from the scene of the disaster, almost dead. Others have been reported floating down the river. The injured have been taken to Kingfisher, where the people have thrown open their homes for them.

It will be impossible to ascertain the exact number of dead for several days.

PARK CASINO.

Vaudeville All This Week
Horse Show October 1

Original Colored Company.

The Mahara minstrel carnival will appear at The Kentucky on Thursday night. This company is one of the oldest colored organizations, the producers of mirth, music and melody by a race that is as free from care as children, bubbling over with happiness. A glance of approval ever brings a smile, a laugh, a song from their lips.

Mysterious "Phantom Detective."

One of the newest melodramatic musical surprises of the season will be seen at The Kentucky on Friday night, Rowland & Clifford's new play, "The Phantom Detective." Lem B. Parker wrote the book and Clarence Sinn the musical numbers. The play is a melodrama with a musical flavoring. Arnold Baldwin plays the leading role; Frank Folsom, the phantom. The cast is large and competent, and the production embellished with picturesque scenic mounting. Brilliantly costumed chorus girls help the musical ensemble work immensely. The setting of trick scenery assists in keeping the audience wondering and the mysterious power displayed by the phantom is little short of remarkable.

Western Atmosphere.

Scenery which is attractive to the eye and a company of well trained actors are what Elmer Walters promises to give patrons of The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night. When his hurrah, fun play, "A Thoroughbred Tramp" makes its appearance. The play is right in line with the popular demand for western atmosphere. The hospitality of the rugged westerner, is cleverly illustrated in this play, and though T. Rush Thompson, the leading spirit in the piece, is but a vagabond, the big hearted westerners show their appreciation of his honesty and straightforwardness by assisting him from the path of evil association to the station in life which was his prior to falling into bad company.

Rescue of a Merchant.

I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The board of public works will meet this afternoon in regular session with a great deal of routine work to look after.

Engineer L. A. Washington stated this morning that he would have the plans and specifications for Nineteenth street from Broadway to the Mayfield road finished in time to present to the board. This is the street where the Paducah Traction company will place tracks if the ordinance is signed. The streets will be finished before the street car company will begin work.

City Engineer L. A. Washington has not yet secured an assistant. He is in correspondence with several however, and believes he will have one here by the time the contractor is ready to start the work of putting in the No. 2 sewerage district.

Contracts for sidewalks on Jones and Fourth streets, and Fountain avenue will be signed today.

Daily Thought.

"The great thing is not living so as to die happy, but so as to make others live happy."

SMALL PROPERTY OWNERS.

The general council does well to consider plans for extending the sewer system long in advance, as by this means all dangers of defective work by reason of excessive haste, complications resulting from insufficient investigation and unnecessary expenses attached to accepting the best means available in a contingency are thus avoided. Rowlandtown and all the other three districts need sewers and it will cost less to construct a complete system next year than it will the year after or any succeeding year. Sewers are not only conveniences, they are as necessary to life in a large city as are any other urban improvements, and the property owners must accept them as such. Their value in the enhancement of the price of property will be realized later on. But now it is the duty of the general council to consider ways and means whereby the most adequate and lasting sewerage system can be installed at the minimum cost and burden to the property owner. The last item of consideration is important. Some property owners have not always the ready money for paying taxes and special assessments, and keeping up repairs. Perhaps in the next four districts to be built the city officials will find this condition more prevalent than in either of the first two districts. It was for the benefit of these property owners that amendments were made to the charter of second class cities permitting such cities to issue sewer construction bonds, paying for the work and taking a lien on the abutting property for the amount of the assessment, which may be paid back in ten annual installments, covering the principal and interest of the bonds. The plan should appeal to all citizens as fair and just, relieving the small property owner of the burden of the assessment, without costing the city anything in the long run. Public improvements should be made in such a manner, when possible, as to encourage the poor man to acquire property, rather than to discourage him by heaping on him burden beyond his capacity to bear.

Judge Reed has answered those

HE CERTAINLY HAD.

Shortsighted Lady Golfer: "Have you seen a golf ball fall anywhere here, please?"

who have said the condition on Kentucky avenue cannot be broken up. If our courts were not able to put a stop to unlawfulness known to everybody and defiantly and publicly practiced, we would be in a sad state, indeed.

Murphy and Tammany defeat McClellan in New York. Now, if the state Democratic convention endorses Hearst for governor, Bryan's cup of bitterness will be spilling out over the two most populous states of the union.

The Aero club is planning five ascensions in one day at Pittsfield, Mass. This is to break the record, but whether the promoters mean the balloon record or the mortality record they do not say.

Maxim Gorky, the Russian literary revolutionist, loves to tell of a girl's fight for liberty. Neither his wife nor the other woman he lives with has cause to complain at lack of liberty.

Judge Reed is not putting the lid on. There never was a lid that would fit Kentucky avenue. He is doing better, he is cleaning out the street so no lid is necessary.

The Princess gown is to be succeeded by the Empire style. Gives way to something more queenly.

JIM IS DEAD.

Favorite Dog of Much Intelligence Gone.

It is probable that the record for attendance at a canine funeral for Paducah was broken today when "Jim," aged fourteen years, was lowered into his flower covered grave in the yard of Charles Smedley, a well known building contractor, at 808 South Third street. Mr. Smedley and family and several dozen friends were present and tears were not missing.

"Jim," a blooded terrier, was the pet of the neighborhood and won out at dozens of rat killing contests. He died yesterday from general debility. He had been the pet of the contractor's family since a puppy and there was real grief in the household.

The dog had been taught by a saloon man to serve as a "watch dog" for his free lunch counter. It was the dog's habit, if he observed any one lingering too long at the cracker bowls, to take him gently by the trousers and pull him away from the position. He is said to have saved hundreds of dollars for the saloon.

Price E. King.

Price E. King, originally from Caseyville, Ky., died at noon yesterday on the Steamer John S. Hopkins about four miles above the city of typhoid fever. He has been residing in Anderson, Mo., engaged in the lumber business. He wanted to be taken home during his illness and was transferred from the Dick Fowler, to the Hopkins yesterday. His brother, John King, and sister, Mrs. Cook, accompanied him. The body was taken on to Caseyville.

Drowns to Recover Woman's Rod.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 19.—Ernest Ashe 17 years of age, is dead at San Antonio as the result of drowning. He was with some ladies, fishing, and one of them dropped her fishing rod in the Concho river, requesting young Ashe to recover it for her. He could not swim, and in an effort to comply with her request he fell into the stream and drowned.

Negro With Ancestors.

Boston, Sept. 19.—W. E. Lowe, a negro, has accepted an invitation to go to Jackson, Miss., to take charge of the department of music in Lane college. His ancestors were musicians in the Massachusetts quota of troops during the French and Indian wars.

LOOK SUSPICIOUS

WHEN POLICE LIEUT. POTTER ENTERED.

Councilmen Squatted Around Big Map With Dice and Nettle in Middle

Had a citizens' committee entered the council chamber late last night after the committee of the whole had finished its business and the members were squatted on the floor around the big sewer map of the city, every city department would have had explanations to make.

The map drawn by Sanitary Engineer Alvord was spread out on the floor and the members were sitting on their haunches around it, while City Engineer Washington pointed out with a long stick the route of the proposed sewer district no. 3. When they finished the business before them they remained in position a few minutes still talking, when Mayor Yeiser got possession of a pair of dice taken from crap shooters at the police station and threw them in the center of the squatting ring just out of reach. Councilman Katterjohn, who was standing by him, tossed a nettle in after the dice, and then they turned to Police Lieut. Potter and demanded the arrest of the whole crowd. Some of the members looked startled when they turned around and saw a police officer behind them.

GERMAN TRADE FILES PROTEST

Complaint to Roosevelt of Alleged Restrictive Legislation.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 19.—A delegation of manufacturers from Germany called on President Roosevelt today to enter a protest against what they considered restrictive legislation in American custom-houses against imports from Germany. C. Leo Zoffen, the spokesman for the delegation, said failure on the part of the United States to remedy matters complained of would serve as an excellent excuse for the beginning by Germany next July of a tariff war. President Roosevelt referred the delegation to the state and treasury departments at Washington.

Princess Gowns Are Out.

Princess gowns—the kind that fit very, very close and make men turn around to look—are no longer "a la mode," so declare the dressmakers of Chicago, who are going to hold high debate over autumn styles in the Stratford hotel this week. It is now the empire, or preferably the semi-empire—very maidenly and ingenu of appearance with high, loose girdles—which is the favorite; and every woman is expected to look as much like Mme. Recamier as possible.

Closing His Tour.

Charlotte, S. C., Sept. 19.—Closing a two days' tour of North Carolina, in which he made pre-arranged speeches in a dozen towns and rear-platform talks in half as many more, William J. Bryan spoke for an hour tonight in Charlotte and went on to Columbia, S. C., where he will speak tomorrow.

Attack Newspapers.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Sept. 19.—As a result of political ill feeling the offices of several newspapers have been rocked.

POLICE BELIEVE GRAHAM HAD PAL

Third Party With Two Boys on Day of The Murder.

Suspect That Young Man Is Concealing Something in Connection With Crime.

HID PISTOL NEAR A SALOON.

Was James Graham the convicted slayer of Claude Bass, alone on the night of August 21? Is the question that is puzzling police and court officials. Some are loath to believe that Graham had enough strength to inflict the terrible wounds on Bass and think he is shielding a confederate. The police have learned where Graham hid a pistol the night of the killing, in some weeds many blocks from where Bass was found.

Although Graham pleaded guilty and stated that he was alone when the assault was made there is some circumstantial evidence that the condemned man had a pal.

A well-known bartender at a saloon where Bass and Graham secured whisky on the day of the murder said today: "I have often wondered who and where the third man was, who was with Bass and Graham when they came in our place. It has been stated that they were in our saloon on the night of the murder but that is a mistake. It was in the afternoon and there were three of them, Graham Bass and another young man, who I did not know. From appearances this third man, a stranger, was the leader of the trio. At any rate, he was doing the most talking."

"When Graham told him that he was working for the railroad at Little Cypress and Bass stated to an inquiry of the stranger that he was working for a railroad at Grayville, Ill., the stranger began persuading them to go with him to Tennessee to work. While Bass and Graham were doing the buying the other fellow did the talking and appeared to be trying to make an impression on them."

"The trio left the place before dark and I have never seen them since but I have often wondered what that talkative chap might know about the job."

At another saloon on Kentucky avenue Graham hid a pistol under a plank, which was lying in the rear yard on the night of the assault and he secured it again the next morning after Bass was found under the tree at Sixth and Terrell streets nearly two miles away.

"How do I know that Graham hid the pistol in the back yard?" the owner of the saloon said in answer to a question. "Why, Graham told me so himself. The morning Bass was found in that lot a crowd of us were in my place talking about the mystery when Graham, who I knew by sight, came in and asked to go into the rear yard."

"I want to get a gun that I hid out there last night," he said.

I asked him if he was not afraid that some one else would find it, and he replied, "No, I took it from a fellow last night and I did not want to be bothered about carrying it. I figured it was the best to hide it until today."

"Graham then pushed through the screen at the rear door and I have never seen him since."

PORK CHOP CAUSE OF TIREDNESS.

Italian Gets It Instead of Steak and Tries to Slay Waiter.

Milwaukee, Sept. 19.—Because when he wanted a hamburger steak he was served with a pork chop Vespo Rocco, an Italian who came here from Antigo two days ago, tried to kill Jasper Garo, a waiter, and today was arraigned in the district court on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder. The testimony showed that Rocco came into a restaurant in the Italian quarter and called for chopped meat, meaning hamburger. The waiter brought him pork chops. Rocco flew into a rage and refused to accept the order. Then he quieted down and offered to buy drinks, asking Caro to drink with him. When the waiter approached Rocco drew a knife and stabbed him in the breast, inflicting a serious but not dangerous wound. Caro is in the hospital. Rocco fled but was captured.

Meat Regulations Promulgated.

While Americans take great pride and pleasure in being called "a strenuous people," it is perhaps not generally appreciated that a great many injure themselves physically—wreck nervous systems, invite premature wrinkles, gray hairs and infirmities by the hurry, worry way in which they live, neglecting in many instances proper care of the body and letting the real pleasures of life escape as a forfeit. Unrestrained strenuousness means neurasthenia ultimately.

Neurasthenia is nerve-exhaustion and that means inefficiency of the body to carry on vital functioning. Nerve centers lag; debility ensues; listlessness and fatigue reign. Pain may be felt in the back; fullness or pressure at the top of the head; sleep is broken and without refreshment; digestion notably is weak and loss of appetite, constipation and distress after eating are the rule. The headache of neurasthenia is like a band around the head; ordinarily is worse in the morning and better towards the end of day, and is probably the most common of all headaches which come for treatment.

Now, drugs do not help neurasthenia; that is admitted; and physicians have long been accustomed to send their neurasthenics away from the cities to the mountains, seashore, abroad or anywhere to find new scenes and enjoy tranquil restoration. But that is expensive and there is a surer, quicker and better as well as less costly way—Osteopathy.

Osteopathy cures neurasthenia, which is but another name for nervousness, by stimulation to the nerves and the circulation.

I can show you to your satisfaction in a very few minutes why osteopathy is the sane rational cure for ALL diseases of the nerves.

Come to see me at any time between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon and 2 and 5 in the afternoon. Dr. G. B. Froage, 516 Broadway. Phone 1407.

BOARDERS ROBBED.

Sleep in Room With Window Open and Lose Cash.

A burglar who gave an artistic but unseen exhibition of pocket-picking operated at the boarding house of Joseph Houser, 1123 Tennessee street, last night and made an easy "get away" with $19 without disturbing landlord or victims.

To get relief from the heat of last night the windows in a large room were raised while, three young railroaders fanned themselves to sleep. Then they slumbered soundly until getting up time today. When they pulled on their trousers they became acutely aware that all their money was gone.

SHE FOUND RELIEF.

Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish."

NEW ASSOCIATION NOT OF FARMERS

Circular Being Distributed
Among Tobacco Growers.

Effort Being Made to Disrupt Organization and Claim of Outsiders
Taking Hand.

LOCAL MEMBERS REJECT IT.

Signed and dated, but without any other indication of its source, a printed circular is being distributed, which, if its allegations are true, is expected to cause a tremendous upheaval in the Dark Tobacco Growers' association.

This circular specifies certain changes in the organization and management of the association, in which a new organization has been completed by certain officers in the old association. The old organization, the circular states, has been superseded by the new one and in the change, among other points of difference mentioned, the name has been changed; the capital reduced; the right to elect general officers has been taken from the farmers and given to the stockholders; the maximum indebtedness has been increased, and the old organization has been abolished without the consent or knowledge of the farmers.

All the general officers, the circular continues, in the new organization, were general officers in the old one. The name has been changed from The Dark Tobacco Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky and Tennessee to The Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, adding another state.

The new association was incorporated May 8, 1906, in Todd county. The incorporators are alleged to have been S. Walton Forgy, a lawyer of Elkton, Ky., S. F. Davis, a stenographer of the same place, and J. E. Garner, Jr., of Springfield, Tenn. It is stated that by the change the farmers will not have a voice in the election of officers of the new association.

The new articles of incorporation state that the general manager of the association shall have full control of the business until the election, the fourth Monday in September. It is asserted that the old association will be discarded without any account of its business transactions being given to the farmers. Figures on the probable profits to the new incorporators are given and the new association is called a "huge commission company." The circular is signed, "L. Head Hunter," and is dated Sept. 11, 1906.

The Argument.

It follows in part:

In the first place, they have changed the name from the Dark Tobacco District Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky and Tennessee to the Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, adding another state.

Second—They have reduced the capital stock from $1,000

$200, although they gave out or permitted it to be given out, to the press that the capital stock was $200,000.

Third—They have increased the maximum indebtedness which the corporation may incur from $1,000, as in the old, to $5,000 in the new. So, while they have reduced the capital stock 80 per cent, they have increased the amount of liability they may incur 500 per cent, which permits them to assume a liability of $250 for each $1 of stock.

Fourth—They are empowered by this charter to buy and sell tobacco in any way they may see fit, in addition to handling it on commission.

Fifth—They have taken away from the farmer the power and right, which they had under the old charter, to elect their directors and general officers and expressly conferred it on the stockholders and the stockholders' board of directors; and in doing so they have stabbed to the heart the farmers' organization and delivered the farmers, bound hands and feet, into the merciless grip of the lawyers' combine.

What has become of the D. T. D. P. P. A. of Kentucky and Tennessee? Has it made up its accounts, converted its assets into cash and distributed the money to those entitled to it? They were our agents and you are entitled to an accounting of the business you authorized them to do for you. Are any of you stockholders in the old corporation? Have you ever received any statement of its business, or any cash in the shape of dividends, or in liquidation, of your stock? Have you? By what "divine right" do two commonplace, everyday lawyers and a convenient lawyer's clerk assume to quietly organize a legal corporation and as quietly swoop down upon a large body of farmers, take surreptitious charge of the farmers' business, conduct it according to their own sweet wills and force the farmers to pay them large sums of money for being thus enslaved?

What, then, is the status of the farmer in this so-called farmers' association as defined by the charter under which it is now conducted. He is simply a voter for district chairman and indirectly, for county chairman—nothing more. It works like this: The individual members meet in their majestic districts and elect the district chairmen; these in turn elect the county chairman, who becomes ex-officio a member of the general executive committee; but the executive committee as such has no voice whatever in the election of the general officers of the association.

This new charter provides for forty-two directors, but as no election is to be held until the fourth Monday of September, 1906, they put this clause in the charter: "And until the fourth Saturday in September, 1906, the general manager shall have full power and control of the business of said corporation and the right to employ such employees and servants as he may deem necessary to properly conduct the business of said association, to fix their compensation and to discharge the same at his will. So that from the time this charter became operative until the fourth Monday in September, 1906, the general manager is the "whole thing," more absolute than the czar of Russia.

We have shown that this so-called association is not a farmers' organization at all, but a huge commission company, owned and controlled by those who were so fortunate as to obtain stock in it. Now let us see what the probable value of this stock will be at the end of this season's business:

It is claimed that it has handled 30,000 hogsheads this year, with no increase in salaries or other expenses, so far as known. Assuming that the tobacco received with average 6 1/2% value per 100 pounds, and that the perquisites in the form of types, scraps and rejected samples are in the proportion as last year, the gross income of the business should not be less than $53,800.00. Deducting from this $20,000.00 for expenses, which is certainly liberal, we have left $33,800.00 to be applied as dividends on the 200 shares of stock, which would be a return of $169.00 for each $1 share of stock, or 16.900 per cent on the investment. Such a percentage of annual profit on an investment, if shown to the managers of Standard Oil, would make them turn green with envy; they might even quit business in disgust at being so surpassed in the earning power of their investments. There is no legitimate venture in the world of which there is public knowledge that can approach it.

The Bath Comedy

By AGNES and EGERTON CASTLE
Authors of "The Pride of Jennico"

COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY EGERTON CASTLE

"The next instant, to his intense astonishment, Sir Jasper found himself in an iron grip, lifted into the air with an ease against which all his resistance was as that of a puppet, shaken till his teeth rattled and deposited on the flat of his back upon the floor. "Oh, help, help, help!" screamed Lady Standish.

"Really," said the bishop, "I don't know when I have been so insulted in my life. 'Tis the whole church, sir, the Church of England, the state itself, that you have assaulted in my person!"

He stood glaring down on the prostrate foe, breathing heavy rebuke through his high, dignified nose.

"You have committed blasphemy, sir, sacrilege, rank sacrilege," thundered Dr. Thulow.

Sir Jasper gathered himself together like a panther and sprang to his feet; like a panther, too, he took two or three stealthy steps and, half crouching, measured the muscular bishop with bloodshot eyes, selecting the most vulnerable portion of anatomy. He panted and foamed. The air was thick with flying powder.

Lady Standish flung herself between them.

"In mercy, my lord," she cried, "leave us, leave us!"

Here the door opened and butler and delighted footmen burst into the room.

The bishop turned slowly. The grace of his vocation prevailed over the mere man.

"May heaven pardon you," he said. "May heaven pardon you, sir, and help you to chasten this gross violence of temper. And you, madam," said he, turning wistfully upon the unfortunate and long suffering lady, "may you learn womanly decorum and circumspection!"

"You shall hear from me again," growled Sir Jasper murderously. "Toombs," cried he to the butler, with a snarl, "show the bishop the door!"

The bishop smiled. He wheeled upon them all a stately back, and with short deliberate steps withdrew, taking his cane from the footman with a glassy look that petrified Thomas and refusing Mr. Toombs' proffered ministrations as he might have waved aside a cup of poison. "Vade retro Satanas," he seemed to say; and so departed, leaving his pastoral curse voicelessly behind him.

CHAPTER XII.

"How beautiful you are!" said Lord Verney.

He was sitting on a stool at Mistress Bellairs' feet. She had abandoned to him one pump taper fingered hand. The gay little parlor of the Queen square house was full of sunshine and of the screeching ecstasy of Mistress Kitty's canary bird.

"How beautiful you are!" said he. It was for the fourth time within the half hour. Conversation between them had languished somehow.

Kitty Bellairs flung a sidelong wistful glance upon her lover's countenance. His eyes, gazing upon her, devoured her beauty with the selfsame expression that she had found so entrancing earlier in the day. "Deep wells of passion," she had told herself then. Now a chill shade of misgiving crept upon her.

"His eyes are like a calf's," she said to herself suddenly.

"How beautiful"—Thus he began to murmur once again, when his mistress' little hand, twitching impatiently from his grasp, surprised him into silence.

"Oh, dear! A calf in very truth," thought she. "Baah, baah, ooh! What can I have seen in him? 'Twas a sudden pastoral yearning!"

"May I not hold your hand?" said he, shifting himself to his silken knees and pressing against her.

Yet he was a pretty boy and there was a charm undoubted in the freshness of this innocence and youth awakening to a first glimmer of man's passion.

"Delightful task!"—she quoted under her breath, and once more vouchsafed him, with a sweep like the poise of a dove, her gentle hand.

As it lay in his brown fingers she contemplated it with artistic satisfaction and played her little digits up and down, admiring the shape and color of the nails, the delicate dimples at the knuckles. "But Lord Verney's great boy's paw enguiled them all too quickly, and his brown eyes never wavered from their devout contemplation of her countenance."

"How!"—Mistress Kitty sprang to her feet. "I vow," she cried, "tis my hour for the waters, and I had clean forgot them!"

She called upon her maid: "Lydia, child, my hat! Lord Verney, if it please you, sir, your arm as far as the pump room." "At least," she thought to herself, "all Bath shall know of my latest conquest!"

She tied her hat ribbons under her chin.

"How like you the mode?" said she. And, charmed into smiles again by the rosy vision under the black plumes, she flashed round upon him from the mirror. "Is it not, perhaps, a thought flirtery? Yet 'tis the latest. What says my Verney?"

The poor youth vainly endeavored to discriminate and criticize.

"It is indeed a very fine hat," said he, "and there seems to be a vast number of feathers upon it." He hesitated, stammered. "Oh, what care I for modes! 'Tis you, you!"—cried Mistress Bellairs sharply to her abigail. "Ont with you!"

"Well, my Verney?" said she. "Mercy, how you look, man! Is anything wrong with my face?"

She tilted that lovely little piece of perishable bloom innocently toward him as she spoke. And the kiss she had read in his eyes landed with unprecedented success upon her lips.

"Why, who knows?" thought she, with a little satisfied smile as she straightened her modish hat. "There may be stuff in the lid, after all!"

She took his arm. Dazed by his own audacity, he suffered her to lead him from the room. They jostled together down the narrow stairs.

"How beautiful you are!" said he, and kissed her again as they reached the somber dark paneled vestibule.

"Fie!" said she, with a shade of testiness, and pushed him back as her little black page ran to open the door.

The kiss, like his talk, lacked any heightening of tone—and what of a lover's kiss that shows no new ardor, what of a vow of love that has no new color, no fresh imagery? But the trees in Queen square were lightly leafed with pale, golden green. The sunshine was white gold, the breeze fresh and laughing; the old gray town was decked as with garlands of young love. "He is but new to it," she argued against her fleeting doubts, "and he is, sure, the prettiest youth in all Bath."

Love and spring danced in Mistress Kitty's light heart and light heels as she tripped forth. And love and spring gathered and strove and sought outlet in Verney's soul as inevitably and irresistibly and almost as unconsciously as the sap in the young shoots that swayed under the caress of the breeze and amorously unfurled themselves to the sunlight.

The pump room was cool and dim after the gray stone street upon which the young year's sunshine beat as fierce as its youth knew how. The water dripped its little song as it welled up, faintly steaming.

"Listen to it," quoth Mistress Kitty. "How innocent it sounds, how clear it looks!"

With a smile she took the glass transferred to her by Verney, and "Ugh!" she said, "how monstrous horrid it tastes, to be sure! 'Tis, I fear," she said, again casting a glance of some anxiety at her new lover's countenance, "a symbol of life."

"Yet," said he, "these waters are said to be vastly wholesome."

"Wholesome!" cried Mistress Kitty, slipping again and again curling her nose upward and the corners of her lips downward in an irresistibly fascinating grimace. "Wholesome, my lord! Heaven defend us! And what is that but the last drop to complete their odiousness? Wholesome, sir? I would have you know 'tis not for wholesomeness I drink." She put down her glass, undiminished save by the value of a bird's draft. "Do I look like a woman who needs to drink waters for 'wholesomeness'?"

"Indeed, no," floundered he in his bewildered way.

"There are social obligations," said she sententiously. "A widow, sir, alone and unprotected, must conform to common usage. And, then, I have another reason, one of pure sentiment."

She cocked her head and fixed her mocking eye upon him.

"My poor Bellairs!" said she. "How oft has it not been my pleasure and my duty to fill such a glass as this and convey it to his lips! In his last years, poor angel, he had quite lost the use of his limbs."

Lord Verney had no answer appropriate to these tender reminiscences, and Mistress Kitty, having, it seemed, sufficiently conformed to the usage of Bath as well as sacrificed to the manes of the departed, turned briskly round and, leaning against a pillar, began to survey the room.

"La, how empty!" quoth she. "Tis your fault if I am so late, my lord. Nobody, I swear, but that Flyte woman, your odious Spicer, sir—ha, and old General Tiney. Verily, I believe these dreadful springs have the power of keeping such mummies in life long after their proper time. 'Tis hardly fair on the rest of the world. Why, the poor thing has scarce a sense or a wit left, and yet it walks! Heaven preserve us—why, it runs!" she cried suddenly, with a little chirp, as the unfortunate veteran of Dettingen, escaping from the guiding hands of his chairman, started for the door with the uncontrolled trot of semiparalytic senility.

"And that reminds me," said Mistress Kitty, "that Sir George is most particular that I should walk five minutes between every glass. Here comes your estimable aunt, Lady Maria, and her ear trumpet, and the unfortunate Miss Selina. I protest, with that yellow feather she is more like my dear dead Toto than ever."

"Was that your pet name for your husband?" murmured Lord Verney in a strangled whisper.

"Fie, sir!" cried the widow. "My cockatoo. I referred to my cockatoo." She sighed profoundly. "I loved him," she said.

SENATOR HICKMAN DIES AT CALHOUN

Four Times Sent to Legislature—Acting Governor.

Mother of Man Who Died From Effects of Whisky, Pleads for Local Option Votes.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD ACCUSED

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 19.—Senator George W. Hickman, of McLean county, died at his home in Calhoun last night at 7 o'clock, of a complication of diseases, which have confined him to his bed for many weeks. Senator Hickman has served two terms in the legislature; was twice elected to the state senate, and acted as governor of the state on one occasion. He had served only half of his last term in the senate. He was chairman of the Goebel contest committee, and also took an important part in the practice act, school book bill, revenue and taxation bill.

Child Accused of Murder.

Maysville, Ky., Sept. 19.—The body of William L. Savage was found in his tobacco patch, with gunshot wounds in the mouth and heart, at 11 o'clock this morning.

Near the body was the family shotgun. His cousin, Chester Savage, who lives at Tollesboro, aged 13, went to work with him in the morning. Chester returned to the house at 10 o'clock. It is supposed that when the boy left the house this time he took the shotgun with him. It is conjectured that Mr. Savage came across the boy with the gun and in trying to take it from him was shot by the boy.

Mother's Argument.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 19.—Jesse P. Nelson, Jr., aged 35, died suddenly this morning. Whisky was found in his pockets. His mother, Mrs. J. P. Nelson, issued a heart-rending appeal to voters to wipe out the saloons on election day, next Wednesday, and over her own, the father's and sister's signatures the saloons are charged with ruin and death. The appeal threw the whisky men in a panic, and last night the saloons closed their doors at 6 o'clock, lest something happen to injure them before election day. There is much excitement here over the local option fight.

HARRIMAN LINES OCEAN TO OCEAN

Great Plan of The Railroad of The Northwest.

Negotiating for Purchase of Baltimore & Ohio to Reach the Atlantic.

FIGHT ALONG PACIFIC SLOPE

New York, Sept. 19.—A representative of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & company said today that the report that they have sold to the Union Pacific Railroad company the stock of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company, which that firm purchased from the Pennsylvania Railroad company, is premature. Negotiations for the sale are under way, but not completed. Kuhn, Loeb & company announce. The announcement of Kuhn, Loeb & company is the first official statement in confirmation of rumors current in Wall street for some time to the effect that E. H. Harriman was seeking a large interest in Baltimore & Ohio. With their large holdings in Chicago & Alton and the control of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, the acquisition of Baltimore & Ohio would give the Harriman interests control of a railroad line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mr. Harriman and his associates also would have a voice in the affairs of Reading a large block of that company's stock being held in the Baltimore & Ohio treasury. It is estimated that complete control of the road will cost about $120,000,000.

Fight in the West.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 19.—The second move in the great war of two railroads has been made. The Hill interests have gathered their forces and are contending with might and main to wrest from Harriman the control of the rich districts of Central Oregon. The purchase of the California Northwestern by the Southern Pacific was the first move in the game and was designed to forestall the plan of the Hill interests, who had announced the intention of building a road from Butte, Mont., to Boise, Idaho, down through Central Oregon and finally ending at San Francisco. News has now been received here that the Hill interests are not asleep. The officials of the San Francisco, Idaho & Montana road have announced large contracts for bridge work and structural steel.

GRAND DUKES

HURRYING TO ESCAPE VENGEANCE OF TERRORISTS.

Send Jewels and Money Ahead and Flees for Foreign Parts to Avoid Poison.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The grand dukes are in a panic. The death of General Prepopoff, which is now generally believed to have been due to poison, has put the entire royal family in such a state of alarm that the members of it are literally falling over each other in getting out of this city. Ten grand dukes left at midnight last night for the west, and more are preparing to go. Most of them will settle down in Paris for some time at least.

Nor is the panic confined by any means to the royal family. Dozens of the reactionary clique in the palace in Peterhof are packing up for trips abroad. They are evidently prepared for a long exile, as they are putting their estates in the hands of permanent agents and are sending their valuables ahead of them. Jewels and plate in great quantities are going by every train to the other capitals of Europe. Much money is said to have been withdrawn from the banks here and invested in outside securities. It is evident that the open boasts of the terrorists that they caused the death of Prepopoff is having its effect.

Board of Education.

There will be a meeting of the board of education in High school, building Wednesday night, September 19, to consider the coal bids and boiler insurance.

When a fool is in love he acts natural.

Eminent Doctors Praise its ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator—makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppression or absence of monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions, and general feebleness, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhoea (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

GEORGE O. HART ENTERS INTO REST

The Veteran Merchant Passes
Peacefully Away.

Druggist, Steamboat Owner and
Hardware Dealer, Prominent Citizen of Paducah.

HELPED DEVELOP THE CITY

Captain George O. Hart, pioneer steamboatman merchant and churchman, and one of Paducah's most prominent citizens, died this morning at 11 o'clock of complication of diseases after a ten days' illness. He died at his home, 913 Jefferson street, and was surrounded by his entire family, his condition having been pronounced hopeless since first attacked. Uraemic poisoning is said to have been the direct cause of his death, although complications, aided by a general collapse, hastened the end.

Captain George O. Hart was born in Girard, Penn., and was 72 years old. He spent his early youth at New Albany, Ind., where his father, the Rev. Edson Hart, was a minister for years. He moved to Paducah in 1867 and had been a resident of this city since.

When he came to Paducah he engaged in the hardware business. He associated with his brother, Captain Ed Hart, now of Memphis. He conducted a steamboat line independently between Louisville and Cincinnati and Cincinnati and New Orleans. One of the finest boats he ever owned was the St. Patrick, a side-wheeler, before coming to Paducah and he was master of several boats he owned and intimately acquainted with the rivers.

In 1867 he engaged in the hardware business here and made a success from the start. His store has always been one of the most prominent in West Kentucky.

Capt. Hart was twice married. His first wife was Miss Addie Stout, of Indiana. He married her in New Albany in 1855. She died several years later and in 1876 he married again. His second wife was Miss Maria Harris. He leaves by his first wife four children, George B. Hart, Mrs. Charles T. Hinkle and Mrs. J. D. Mocquot, of the city, and Mrs. Henry Weissenger, of Louisville. By his second wife, he leaves one son, Edson Hart, of the city.

One brother, Capt. Ed Hart, of Memphis, survives him.

Captain Hart was always a prominent man. He took little part in politics, but was active in the commercial world and a good churchman, being a deacon in the Presbyterian church of which he was a member, and for years took a great interest in its Sunday school.

Genial, bright and witty and "well met" he was always one of the most popular men in the city, and numbered among his friends the young men, in whom he took much interest, as well as the older men.

Captain Hart's business relations were not many. He was the principal stockholder in the firm of George O. Hart & Son Hardware company and was also a director of the Citizens' Savings bank, and a stockholder in the Paducah Veneer & Lumber company.

No funeral arrangements have been made, but it is stated by members of the family that the funeral will not take place before Friday.

Captain Hart was a member of the Elks lodge.

NEW QUARTERS

Building.

Growth in business has necessitated larger facilities for the Mechanics and Farmers Savings bank and the building at 210 Broadway now occupied by the J. G. Rehkopf Buggy company as an office, has been purchased by that bank which will occupy it within the next few weeks.

The Mechanics and Farmers Savings bank was organized in January, 1903, occupying space in the American-German National bank building. The doors were thrown open for deposits January 3, 1903, and in the three years of its existence last January, the deposits had increased to over $200,000, and today the bank has over 1,400 depositors.

The building purchased for banking quarters for the bank, was once occupied by the American-German National bank. The fixtures installed by that bank were handsome oak finish and have remained in the building during its occupancy by the Rehkopf Buggy company. They will serve again for the Mechanics and Farmers Savings bank.

The removal to the new quarters which will take place as soon as the present occupants can vacate will give the bank ample accommodation for its business for many years to come. The building was purchased from Mr. J. G. Rehkopf and the office of that company probably will be moved into the store adjoining.

JUDGES CHOSEN FOR HORSE SHOW

Scott Isbell, F. M. Wilson and

ARRANGEMENTS PROGRESSING.

The Horse Show association has made the final arrangements for the judges for the event. They are Scott Isbell, of Bowling Green, Ky., F. M. Wilson, of Cave City, Ky., and Walter Palmer, of Ottawa, Ill.

The gentlemen are competent judges of horse flesh. Mr. Isbell and Mr. Wilson have worked on the central Kentucky fair circuit for years, serving as judges in all of the more important events, and their work is esteemed highly. Mr. Palmer is an authority in Illinois. He has served with the Chicago Horse Show association, and was judge of the light harness events at the World's Fair in St. Louis.

The directors of the association are gratified in being able to secure men of such high standing and ability as they feel it will give their show great prestige.

Another advantage in having such men as judges is that it removes prospects of any one winning an event on personal influence, for, in the idiom of the street, all entries will look alike to these judges, as far as the owners are concerned.

The indications now are there will be between 125 and 150 foreign horses here for the show. The interest in western Kentucky, southern Illinois and west Tennessee is keen and from letters being received daily all indications point to a large number of horses and horse men coming for the event.

The final details for the show are being rapidly completed and everything will be in readiness for the first night, October 3.

J. A. Houser, of 1421 South Ninth street, carpenter, says: "I have been subject to kidney complaint all my life; not constantly or seriously, but every now and then—sometimes without warning—I had attacks some of which laid me up. I noticed that the contractions of a cold always affected my kidneys and when in this condition, in addition to backache, there was trouble with the kidney secretions. Like I had tried more than one preparation I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Alvey & List's drug store and took them. The last attack disappeared. So pleased was I with the result that I gave Doan's Kidney Pills to a child of mine annoyed with weak kidneys. The results obtained stamp Doan's Kidney Pills as being up to representation."

Democratic Campaign Book.

Washington, Sept. 19.—In about ten days the Democratic campaign book will be issued by the Democratic congressional campaign committee. Its appearance is eagerly expected by the politicians, who are looking for the Democratic issues as formerly set forth by the party organization. It is said that tariff revision and the trusts will be the main topics of discussion in the book.

BY JANUARY

GENERAL COUNCIL PROPOSES TO LET SEWER CONTRACT.

District, No. 3, on North Side to Be Taken Care of Next—To Begin
Work in Spring.

District, No. 3, that section of the city between Trimble street and Hampton avenue, will have sewers early in the spring, according to the plans of the general council, declared by vote in committee of the whole last night. It was decided to advertise for bids on the contract before January 1 and let the contract so the work can be started as soon as the weather permits.

This district would have an outlet where the foot of Burnett street would be, were that street extended through to the river. It embraces a large territory badly in need of a sewerage.

It is the purpose of the councilmen and aldermen to afford sewerage for the whole city as soon as possible, and this will make two districts taken care of by this body.
